

Amsterdam Art announces participants for the 11th edition of Amsterdam Art Week

- ❖ The 11th edition of Amsterdam Art Week will take place from 31 May to 4 June 2023
- ❖ Amsterdam Art Week offers a focused programme in collaboration with 50 participating art organisations

Amsterdam Art Week is the perfect time to discover what Amsterdam has to offer in terms of contemporary art. The event is a collaboration between the leading institutions in Amsterdam's contemporary art scene. During Amsterdam Art Week, the capital turns into an international meeting place for art lovers, collectors, art professionals, and promising and renowned artists. For five days, art professionals and art lovers get to know the latest developments in contemporary art at the more than 50 participating galleries, project spaces, museums and residencies. During Amsterdam Art Week, the participants present a varied programme of exhibitions, openings, performances, screenings, lectures and artists' talks. The 11th edition of Amsterdam Art Week will take place from 31 May to 4 June 2023.

Visitors at Birdman van Paulo Nazareth, Stevenson, during Amsterdam Art Week 2022 (credits: Almicheal Fraay)

The programme

In the coming edition, Amsterdam Art is once again committed to connecting the various players in the Amsterdam arts field. The organisation does this in cooperation with 50 participants. This ensures substantive collaboration and reinforcement of the Amsterdam ecosystem. At the various participants, visitors can discover the art talent of the future during Amsterdam Art Week, before seeing them at biennials or in prominent art museums. Traditionally, Amsterdam Art Week coincides with the Rijksakademie's Open Studios from 2-4 and 8-11 June 2023, where 47 international, multidisciplinary artists open their studios to the public.

On 24 April 2023, the public programme and offerings of all participating galleries, residencies, museums and project spaces during Amsterdam Art Week can be found at amsterdamart.com.

The participating organisations

Whereas last year's anniversary edition saw 65 participating organisations take part in Amsterdam Art Week, the 11th edition will see 50. This allows Amsterdam Art to offer visitors a more focused programme in the coming edition. Amsterdam Art is pleased to announce the participants of the upcoming edition of Amsterdam Art Week:

Galleries: AKINCI, andriess ~ eyck, Annet Gelink Gallery, Bildhalle, Ellen de Bruijne Projects, Galerie Bart, Galerie Caroline O'Brien, Galerie dudokdegroot, Galerie Fons Welters, Galerie Fontana, Galerie Martin van Zomeren, Galerie Onrust, Galerie Ron Mandos, GRIMM, Josilda da Conceição Gallery, Kersgallery, Lumen Travo, Slewe, Stevenson, Stigter Van Doesburg, tegenboschvanvreden, TORCH Gallery, Upstream Gallery

Young Section: diez, Galerie Fleur & Wouter, Enari Gallery, GoMulan Gallery, Hama Gallery, Madé van Krimpen Gallery, m.simons, No Man's Art Gallery

Residencies: BijlAIR, De Ateliers, Rijksakademie van beeldende kunsten, Thami Mnyele Foundation

Museums: Amsterdam Museum, Eye Filmmuseum, Foam, Oude Kerk, Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam

Project Spaces: CBK Zuidoost, De Appel, Framer Framed, ISO, Kunstverein, puntWG, ROZENSTRAAT - a rose is a rose is a rose, W139

About Amsterdam Art

Amsterdam Art is committed to strengthening Amsterdam's position as an international centre for contemporary art. Throughout the year, we foster cooperation between various art institutions within the Amsterdam ecosystem and promote the capital's leading artists and exhibitions. This culminates during the annual Amsterdam Art Week. For the public, this is the moment to discover the art talent of the future. Amsterdam Art Week is created in cooperation with 50 participants, consisting of galleries, museums, residencies and project spaces.

Besides Amsterdam Art Week, Amsterdam Art promotes the current offerings of contemporary art institutions throughout the year on its website, through social media and publishes a digital newsletter. For more information, see amsterdamart.com.

NOTE TO THE EDITORS (not for publication)

High-resolution images from the 10th edition of Amsterdam Art Week can be downloaded here:

<https://we.tl/t-CN1cQf6LNL>

For more information, please contact:

Martina Halsema, director Amsterdam Art, m.halsema@amsterdamart.com | 06-38668925

Amsterdam Art, Weesperplein 4B, 1018 XA Amsterdam
info@amsterdamart.com | www.amsterdamart.com

